ALMA

Mexican Mission Picnic

Two hundred Mexican children were treated to a day at Alum Rock Park in San Jose, June 6, by the Mexican mission scholastics, Mssrs. Robert Stowe (Mo.), Paul Mueller (Ore.), Francis Greene (Ore.), Bernard McMeel (Ore.), Earl LaRiviere (Ore.), John Murray (Ore.), Leonard Kaufer (Ore.), Donald Kolda, and Paul Hilsdale. The scholastics were assisted by the mission's great benefactor, Mrs. B. A. Crist. All the refreshments—ice cream, pop, hotdogs, potato chips—were donated by San Jose merchants and by Mrs. Crist. Prizes were raffled and the children swam and rode the merry-go-round through the generosity of the park management. There was a softball game for the boys and one for the girls. Transportation for the children was provided by the Bellarmine and Alma College busses.

Mr. Kolda reports the following statistics for the period January, 1953 to June, 1953:

Applications received	80
Completing the course	36
Known to have been baptized	13
Still taking course	36
Instructions given	214
Theologian directors	33

The following are the figures for the follow-up Mass instruction course:

Applicants received	11
Course completed	6
Instructions given	26

Guadalupe Vacation School

Mssrs. Murray, Lucid, Collins, Robinson, Slater, Mueller (Ore.); and LoSchiavo conducted the Religious Vacation School for Spanish-speaking children at Our Lady of Guadalupe Chapel, San Jose, August 3-29. Two centers were in operation: Guadalupe proper and St. Mary's of the Highway. Two hundred children, ages 4-14, were enrolled. At the end of August, 16 children made First Communion at Our Lady of Guadalupe. Closing exercise was a picnic at Alum Rock Park, San Jose. The Fall term began September 5. New teachers are Mssrs. Conklin (Ore.), Kolda, Enright, and Duggan. Mr. Stowe was appointed "superior." Attendance has been boosted at Mass and catechism by the purchase of a second-hand bus for use in picking up children from outlying districts.

Redwood Estates-Chemeketa Park Summer School

These summertime catechetical projects employed Fathers Kapfer, Purdy (Ore.); L. Byrne, T. Byrne, and Fallon; and Mssrs. Bradley, Astruc, and LaRiviere (Ore.). Two lay teachers also gave their time. Pupils numbered 82 at Redwood Estates and 30 at Chemeketa. A car was donated for the duration of the summer school by Guy F. Atkinson, Contractor, South San Francisco. After classes, August 3-28, a picnic was given the children on the grounds of Bellarmine Prep, August 28. Fr. Purdy was in charge.

Visitors

Fr. Hugh McKinnon of the Upper Canadian province stayed at Alma June 9-12 to confer with Fr. McShane on special studies in history.

Fr. Louis Paulussen of the Netherlands province, a member of the Roman Curia stayed at Alma September 7-8. He gave a community exhortation on the Sodality and later spoke informally to the scholastics on the same subject.

Varia

Fr. Twigg-Porter gave several talks this summer on the Sacred Heart program and on work with the deaf.

On the Feast of St. Claire, August 12, Fathers and scholastics, mostly from Alma, conducted the public Solemn Mass and Benediction in the garden of the Poor Clare convent in Capitola. Officers of the Mass were: Fr. Carroll O'Sullivan, celebrant; Fr. Fox, deacon; Fr. Fallon, subdeacon; Fr. Hagemann, preacher. Mr. Gallagher led the choir. Mssrs. Costa and O'Leary built and decorated the outdoor altar. Alma's public-address system was set up so that the nuns could hear the music and sermon.

Mr. Gallagher attended the Gregorian Institute of America at Lone Mountain, San Francisco, August 3-7.

Fr. Joseph F. Meehan pronounced his Last Vows at Alma August 15. Fr. Minister (A. Gilligan) celebrated the Vow Mass. Mr. Lucid (Ore.) was in charge of the featsday dinner.

While the theologians were at villa, Fr. Rector (H. Werts) broke his arm at home, spent several days in the hospital at Santa Cruz. Mr. Wright was in the hospital for three days (O'Connor's) for a minor operation, returning home September 5. September 1, the new theologians arrived 26 strong — 15 Californians, 8 Oregonians, 2 from Chicago, and one New Yorker. In their honor the 4th year Fathers gave the annual house picnic on September 3. Father Kapfer (Ore.) was in charge. On Labor Day the theologians began to labor. Hebrew class began that day. "Ad Auds" came off September 9th and 11th, schola brevis the 12th (after the Mass of the Holy Ghost), and common order the 14th.

AZUSA

Fathers. Fr. John F. Connolly arrived July 15, and called a meeting of the consultors, including the out-going superior Fr. Joseph Crowley. A week later Fr. Connolly gave his first Manresa retreat. Fr. Harry Strehl arrived to take up his new duties in the middle of August.

Summer Work. Ground was broken for the new chapel, July 6. The building is expected to be completed by December 1. It is as the main building, French chateau style, and will seat approximately 100.

During the summer, retreats were held each week end, and the numbers of those who attended were good. Amongst the retreatants in early September were Bing Crosby and his two sons, Gary and Dennis.

The Fathers at Manresa, throughout the summer, were able to give generous assistance to the many neighborhood parishes.

Early in June, Fr. Gerald Nagle conducted the Senior retreat at Loyola High School. The first week of September brought Father back to Loyola for the retreat for in-coming Freshmen.

Fr. Joseph Vaughan conducted the annual retreat of the Holy Family Sisters in San Francisco.

Fr. Connolly presented the Labor Day sermon at St. Vibiana's Cathedral (LA) on September 7.

Visitors. Fr. Wilfred LeSage is visiting Manresa. There have been many visitors to Manresa throughout the summer. Many Fathers of the Province made their annual retreat at Manresa.

BELLARMINE

Summer Work. Leaders of the Sodalities of the Province held a special meeting on the Bellarmine campus, August 18 and 19. Fr. Joseph Howard was in charge of the program.

Fr. Russell Gruye returned after a summer's canvass of parishes and schools throughout California. In general, he found the clergy and school principals interested in our educational work.

During the summer, Sophomore, James Small, was chosen outstanding prep baseball player of Northern California by the Examiner Baseball School. He was awarded a trip to New York, where he played on the Examiner Team at the Polo Grounds.

Beginnings. Classes resumed Sept. 9 with an enrollment of 728 students. Of the enrollment, 178 are boarders.

A faculty sponsored dinner was presented in behalf of the leaders of the 1953-54 Mothers' and Dads' Clubs, Sept. 3. The event proved to be successful, and an excellent spirit of co-operation and loyalty was manifested by the parents.

School activities. Fr. Gerald Flynn, and Trainer Henry Schmidt of University of Santa Clara, were principal speakers at a rally held prior to the first football game of the Fall season with Pittsburgh High School. The Bells subsequently won the game 6-0.

The annual Fall Barbecue of the Dads' Club was sponsored by veteran members of the Club and its setting was the Bellarmine campus, Sept. 23.

BRIGHAM CITY

Father Kern. Brigham City community welcomed its third member, Fr. Louis Kern. His residence is Brigham, and his work is twenty miles away at Ogden. A new high school—St. Joseph's—has been started at Ogden, under the charge of the Sisters of the Holy Cross. Fr. Kern is Spiritual Father, Dean of the young men, and part-time teacher.

Father Dunn. Fr. Frank Dunn spent a few weeks during the summer, with the Franciscan Fathers at the Navajo Reservation, in Arizona, making himself more acquainted with Navajo customs, meeting the children in their homes, and learning something of the Navajo language. The Franciscan Fathers, (Province of St. John Baptist), have done wonderful work with the Navajos. Since there are 2200 Navajo children at the Indian school, at Brigham, transported 500 and more miles from the Reservation in New Mexico and Arizona, the Fathers at Brigham are in constant correspondence with the Franciscan Fathers, regarding dates of birth, Baptism, etc. The Franciscans maintain a file of 35,000 Navajos. The Navajo children, excepting 200, returned to their homes on the Reservation during the summer. 54 Greyhounds were chartered for the return of the 2000. The children were brought back to the Intermountain School, at Brigham, the middle of August.

Father Whelan. Fr. Edward Whelan recently gave the Forty Hours at St. Patrick's, Salt Lake City, and the Mission-Novena at St. Joseph's, Ogden.

Assistants. Frs. Raymond Brannon and Vincent McGinty helped at St. Henry's during July and August.

Parish. Improvement was made at St. Henry's, by the addition of an added living room upstairs. The remodeling doubled the accomodations of the Chapel.

CHINA MISSION

Hsinchu. Fr. Thomas Korn arrived in Taiwan on the Feast of St. Ignatius. On August 3, he went to Hsinchu to be Father Minister of the community. In the early evening, August 14, he felt tired and feverish. At ten o'clock he became delirious and then it was evident he was seriously ill. Removed to the hospital, he was administered Extreme Unction by one Father Jaeggy, and subsequently went into a coma. His breathing soon after became labored, and a 5:05 in the morning he died. The diagnosis was given as either encephalitis or sunstroke. An American doctor who attended him considers sunstroke as the more likely cause of death. Father Korn had been out in the sun for a considerable period without wearing a hat; all the symptoms could be explained by sunstroke. Father Korn's funeral was held at a time when the typhoon Nina was at its height in the Hsinchu area. The Requiem Mass was celebrated by Very Rev. Fr. Burkhardt, Visitor of the Jesuit Missions of China.

Monsignor Fahy has obtained a larger and more suitable residence in Hsinchu. On the lower floor are the Church, class rooms and parlors. On the second floor are living quarters large enough to accomodate eight priests.

Taipei. Fr. Albert O'Hara came over to Taipei from Hong Kong for a ten day visit. In order that there may be room for a growing community, Father Superior's (Edward Murphy) residence is being enlarged by two rooms. Fr. Joseph Donahoe is in charge of the construction, which has been slowed up through the summer because of the typhoons.

At Beda Tsang Hall over 160 students attended the first part of the summer-school. Fr. Wm. Klement taught eight hours a week of English and catechism.

The Sodality Summer School of Catholic Action was held on September 14, 15, and 16. Twelve Fathers participated in the well chosen program. All of the conferences were given in Chinese. The Most Reverend Joseph Kuo, C.D.D., the Archbishop of Taipei, attended on the closing day and gave the final Benediction. Around 75 students, more than twice last year's number signed up for this summer school.

University classes begin again in October and once more Beda Tsang Hall will be a center of activity and a new series of English and Catechism classes will be under way.

Father Shaules as Director of the Apostleship of Prayer in Taiwan visited the larger Catholic centers on the Island.

Taichung. Fr. Thomas Carroll responded very well to medical treatment at St. Mary's Hospital in Lo Tong. He has returned to Taichung for a six-week rest. He hopes very soon to resume his work on the English-Chinese Dictionary. Fr. Gerald Pope has carried on single handed in Fr. Carroll's absence.

The Fathers teaching at Taiwan University were given use of a house in the University Forestry Section; (about 4000 feet above sea-level). Even those who are not at the University are allowed to join them there from time to time. Escaping the heat of Hsinchu and Taipei, Msgr. Fahy, Fr. Klement, and Br. James Finnegan enjoy the cool mountain air these several weeks past.

At press time it was learned that Fr. P. Oliger arrived in San Francisco on Sept. 20, and that Mgr. Fahy is scheduled to arrive there during the first week in October.

New Arrivals. Fr. Everett Mibach arrived at Keelung by boat on September 5. His voyage across the Pacific was a pleasant one, his stay in Hong Kong very brief. He is assigned to Beda Tsang Hall and will teach Upper Division English at Taiwan National University.

Fr. Philip Bourret arived by air at Taipei on September 15. He is the new Father Minister at Hsinchu and will get a god opportunity for speaking Chinese.

Father John Palm's entry visa has been sent him in Hong Kong and he is expected to arrive soon. His coming to Taiwan had been delayed by an attack of malaria. He will be stationed at Hsinchu.

EL RETIRO

Anniversary. 1953 marks the Golden Jubilee of the founding of the Catholic Laymen Retreat Association in the Province. A dinner was held in honor of the event, July 29. All of the clergy who have helped the retreat movement were invited. An Open House was held at El Retiro, September 7, for the retreatants and their families. The occasion was marked by Solemn High Mass at eleven o'clock. Solemn Benediction concluded the day, with almost three hundred in attendance.

Summer. Six seminarians from St. Patrick's Seminary (Menlo Park) stayed at El Retiro during the summer. Their duties were to wait table for the retreatants and help in the Chapel.

Fr. James Rooney has recently joined the Mission Band, at El Retiro.

The second of El Retiro's retreats for priests was conducted in August. There were five priests in attendance.

Fr. Zacheus Maher conducted the Oregon Province retreat at Port Townsend in August.

Fall. Frs. Giambastiani and John Brolan gave the retreat at Loyola High School, marking the beginning of the school-year.

Fr. Maher preached the sermon, on the occasion of the dedication of Loyola University's new chapel, September 24.

SANTA BARBARA

Summer months. Vacation Summer School was well attended. Fr. James Donohue was in charge.

Frs. Donohue, Edward Stretch, Villa, and Henry Busch heard confessions at the Priests retreats at Camarillo (LA) during the summer.

Most Rev. Bernard Espelage, O.F.M., Bishop of Gallup, New Mexico, preached at all Masses, June 28. The collection received was $1,000. A generous and beautiful letter of thanks from the Bishop arrived soon after.

Fr. Donohue, late in the summer, made his retreat at Azusa, and left Santa Barbara for Phoenix, his new residence.

Visitors. Frs. Bernard Sheerin and Ignatius Dunbeck (Ore.) paid surprise visits to Santa Barbara. Frs. Harold Ring, Cornelius O'-Mara, Wm. Monihan, and McCabe (Mo.) also visited earlier in the summer.

Fr. Ryan. Fr. Wm. Ryan left for the East in July, before returning to sail for Formosa.

Cardinal McIntyre. His Eminence, Cardinal McIntyre, and his secretary, Msgr. Dolan, arrived unexpectedly July 9. Plans for adding four more rooms to the high-school were encouraged by the Cardinal. The improvement is already underway.

SANTA CLARA

At the Chicago meeting, Fr. Wilfred Crowley was elected chairman of the Nominating Committee for the 48th Annual Meeting of the NCAA to be held next January in Cincinnati.

Fr. Raymond Kelley visited several universities this summer, including the University of Minnesota where he attended the Convention of the National Association of University and College Housing Officers.

Fr. Joseph Geary attended the ROTC Summer Camp at Fort Sill in July.

Fr. Joseph Martin taught Theology at the Good Shepherd Convent in Los Angeles, and Fr. James Markey taught Theology to the Missionary Sisters of Redlands.

Through the generosity of various Jesuit Houses of the Province, Fr. Spieler was able to bring a supply of scientific equipment to Brophy High School at Phoenix.

Fr. John Weber joined Fr. Hubbard and Mr. Josef Hilpert, Curator of the Art Museum, in a month's tour of Alaska.

Santa Clara's FM radio station, KSCU, is resuming its broadcast for the fall semester.

Father Cornelius Deeney will again teach an evening adult course in Scripture studies.

Dr. and Mrs. Edward Amaral are still hospitalized in Marin County General Hospital after a serious accident in August.

Dean Edwin Owens of the Law School was appointed by Governor Earl Warren to the Superior Court Judgeship of Santa Clara County.

Mr. Frederick Wilhelmsen of the philosophy department has published a book on Hillaire Belloc, "No Alienated Man." (Sheed and Ward.)

New commanding Officer of the University ROTC Unit is Colonel Michael Buckley, whose son is now in the first year of Philosophy at Mt. St. Michaels. Colonel Buckley comes to us from Research and Development Division of the Army in Washington, D.C.

Professor Umberto Olivieri, professor of Italian since 1932, has joined the Oblates of St. Joseph in Mexico. He will work as a catechist among the Otomis Indians.

Some visitors to Santa Clara during the summer included Bishop Joseph McGuckn, Auxiliary of Los Angeles, Father Gerald Ellard of St. Mary's, Kansas, Father John Bannon of the History Department of St. Louis University, Father John Thomas of the ISO, St. Louis, Father Louis Paulussen, General Secretary of the Sodality in Rome. Father Paulussen gave a Community Exhortation.

William H. Abeloe, a junior student in the pre-medical course, after joining the Church last November, was accepted for entrance at St. Joseph's at Cuper-tino, where he will study for the Priesthood. He joins two other Santa Clarans already there—Ray Decker, a graduate of last year, and Don Jones, a junior engineer of last year.

SAN FRANCISCO

University

Fall Term. The Mass of the Holy Spirit was celebrated at the Church by Fr. President (Wm. Dunne), with Fr. Paul Harney, deacon, and Fr. Ralph Tichenor, sub-deacon. Fr. James Duffy delivered the sermon.

Fr. Andrew Boss participated in a ten-day conference schedule in Utah, with U.S. Steel's Columbia Division.

The Labor-Management School will present a series of radio programs over KNBC. At the opening broadcast Frs. President and Boss will speak, as well as representatives of labor and management.

Fr. John McGloin, at the request of Fr. James Brown, Superintendent of Schools of the Archdiocese, addressed 1000 Sisters at the Teachers Institute, Riordan High School. The occasion was the Centenary of the Archdiocese.

Father Stern. Fr. Aloysius Stern, who owes in a special way his vocation to Ven. Fr. Magin Catala, O.F.M., made a pilgrimage to University of Santa Clara and offered Mass at the Catala Altar there.

Summer Activity. Fr. John Mootz, on the occasion of his Golden Jubilee, was awarded a resolution of congratulations and best wishes by the Board of Supervisors in behalf of the City.

A number of USF students entered religion or began preparation for the priesthood this summer. A total of fifteen men entered the Society, Franciscans, Carmelites, Maryknoll, and the Dominicans. Several of them entered the Archdiocesan seminary. Six girls, of the Nursing School or Evening Division, entered the Convent.

The community picnic was held on Admission Day at Rancho Olompali.

High School

Registration. Total enrollment of the student body reached the 950 mark. Freshman Week, preceding the registration of the upper classmen brought 260 Freshmen to St. Ignatius. This week was marked by a Retreat and a Basketball Tourney. The parents of the Freshmen met one evening in that week.

The Dad's Club met September 10, at their meeting a full explanation of the School's activities were explained. Fr. Fred Cosgrove was in charge.

Mass of the Holy Spirit was held at St. Ignatius Church, with Fr. President (Wm. Dunne) as celebrant, Fr. William Finnegan, as deacon, and Fr. Fred Cosgrove, as sub-deacon. Fr. Willis Egan delivered the sermon.

Improvements. A new wire fence was erected along Parker Avenue, above the football field. The old bleachers were removed, and the terrace which remains is being landscaped.

SUFFRAGES

Fr. Francesco di Paula Nalbone who died at Messina on Aug. 24 in the 88th year of his life, his 73rd in the Society. (tIalian Assistant 1914-1930.)

Fr. Thomas H. Korn, who died at Hsinchu, Formosa, on Aug. 15 in the 39th year of his life, his 18th in the Society.

Since the beginning of the summer, suffrages have also been announced for the following: Fr. Victor White, Fr. John Hayes, and Bro. John Pereira. By virtue of the Oregon Province agreement: Fr. Maurice Flaherty, Fr. Edgar Taylor, Mr. Hugh Geary, and Bro. Joseph Giraudi.

Deaths in the Assistancy

Bro. Paul A. Boland, on July 22, in Darby, Pa.

Fr. Francis X. Breen, on Aug. 12, at Milford Novitiate.

Fr. Francis P. Bungart, on Sept. 12, in Chicago.

Fr. John J. Cassidy, on July 21, in Teaneck, N.J.

Fr. James J. Daly, on Aug. 17, in Detroit.

Fr. Leo Dejardin, on July 30, in Chakradharpur, India. (Prov. Md.)

Fr. Henry J. Duffy, on Sept. 15, in Grand Couteau.

NOVITIATE

Fr. Irenee Beaubien of Montreal arrived in the early part of July and remained several weeks during which time he took the opportunity of addressing the Juniors on his work among converts.

Fr. Gerald Ellard also paid a visit during July, arousing in the course of his stay the interest of both Novices and Juniors in the various aspects of present-day liturgical movements.

In accordance with the desire of Fr. General that Scholastics during their training gain a more thorough knowledge of the World Sodality Movement, Fr. Louis Paulussen of the Dutch Province consumed most of his early-September visit in addressing the Novices and Juniors, and answering all questions with reference to the Sodality. In his capacity as President of the Central Secretariate of Sodalities, Fr. Paulussen had been attending a conference in the East.

A new system for transporting grapes from the fields to the winery promises a great saving of both time and expenses during the coming harvest. Large metal containers, capable of holding approximately one ton of grapes, are now used instead of wooden boxes. The processes of handling are thereby greatly reduced, while machine-controlled loading, unloading, dumping, and crushing lessens to a minimum the man-power involved.

Fr. Ralph Deward has taken over the office of Fr. McKey as superintendent of all winery departments.

On August 15, Frs. William J. Brother Lloyd E. Carmichael pro-Keenan, John J. Perlite, and nounced their final vows. The group pronouncing the first simple vows included: Emil L. Bishop, Bernard J. Bush, Joseph H. Campana, Lawrence A. Castagnola, Albert W. Cornelius, William F. Donnelly, Carlo A. Farina, John L. Flynn, Milton A. Gonsalves, Carroll C. Kearley, Donald P. Merrifield, James P. Muntz, J. David Reed, William J. Rewak, Joseph P. Savarino, George E. Seeber, John J. Seidler, J. Kenneth Siberz, William J. Stout, William J. Wood.

The following were admitted as postulants on August 14: (from Bellarmine) Gary Bowman, Robert Bush, Robert Chiesa, Warner Ruffner, Alfio Torrisi, John Werner; (from Loyola University) Joseph Del Re, Eugene Frank, Elmer Luthman, Frank MacPeck, Daniel Ross, Charles Sherf; (from University of San Francisco) Gilbert Avellar, Paul Davey, Thomas Maes, George McGrath, Michael Praetzel; (from St. Ignatius) Edward Cunningham, Richard Detsch, Richard Krank, Carlos Sevilla, Anthony Sullivan; (Loyola High School) Edward Alcocer, Michael Callahan, George Madatian; (from Cal. Tech.) Thomas Janssens; (from Los Angeles Junior Seminary) Anthony Valla; (from Sacramento) Ernest Giles; (from Rome) Fr. George J. Yahn.

On September 8th, Cornelius J. Cooney pronounced his first vows, and Edwin McMahon, from USF, and Edward Hoene, from Chicago, entered the Novitiate.

LOYOLA HIGH

Fr. Domochowski has been appointed Minister of the house, replacing Fr. Morley, who has been transfered to Bellarmine.

During the summer both the interior and exterior of the Frat House and the Flats were painted by Father Barry and the scholastics. Stall showers now replace the old tubs in the Flats. The backroom of the Frat House has been made into a recreation room for the boarders.

The old gym has a new coat of paint and the buildings and grounds were cleaned up in general.

Schol opened Sept. 10 with a registration of 860. Thirty-seven of these are boarders.

Sept. 14 the students retreat began. The retreat masters were Fr. Giambastiani, Seniors; Fr. Bolan, Juniors; and Fr. Nagle, Sophs. The Freshmen had already made their retreat during orientation week in late August under Fr. Nagle.

Sept. 18 the Mass of the Holy Ghost (missa recitata) was celebrated for the student body by Fr. Rector in St. Thomas' Church. Fr. Giambastiani preached and Mr. Elliott led the choir.

The new faculty members include Frs. Menager and Lawrence O'Toole, and Messrs. Wm. Deeney, Elliot, Gordon, McDonough, Charles Phipps, and Woods. Mr. Jack Bouchard returned to Loyola this year as football coach with Don Klikhammer and Art Robinson as his assistants. Mrs. O'Sullivan has replaced Mrs. Newe as Registrar.

The Dads' Club held a reception for the Freshmen Dads. Fr. Rector, Fr. Saussotte, and Mr. Bouchard spoke on educational objectives, responsibility of parents, and so forth. Refreshments were served after the formal meeting, and the new Dads met the teachers.

The Cubs traveled to Santa Barbara for the first game of the season. Even though they were defeated 25-14, they played well and showed much promise for future Catholic League play.

LOYOLA UNIVERSITY

August 23. Many Catholic deaf of the archdiocese attended Mass in the Sacred Heart chapel. Fr. Parrish gave the sermon in the sign language.

Sept. 5. The Victor H. Rossetti Scholarship Fund for students in the College of Business Administration was established. The fund, valued at $23,250 was the gift of the directors and employees of the Farmers and Merchants National Bank in honor of Mr. Rossetti's 60th year in banking. He is the president of the bank and chairman of the university's board of regents.
